EL PASO DAY AT THE FAIR SATURDAY

Special Program Arranged For Saturday at Dona Ana County Exposition.

Las Cruces, N. M., Oct. 1.—The Dona Ana county fair, which opened on Wednesday, closes tomorrow, Saturday being designated as El Paso and governor's day. A large crowd is expected from El Paso.

Hogs Attract Attention.

Few men who attend the fair fail to go across the street to see the carload of hogs brought here from Astoria by Mr. Hullman. The hogs were not entered at the fair as the tollmen did not wish to utilize space on the grounds which he thought belonged to people of the county to place their exhibits.

Peacock Indictment Quashed.

In the case of Daura V. Peacock charged with neglect of duty, as assessor of Dona Ana county, the indictment was quashed and the demurrer sustained in district court this week.

Murder Trial On.

GREAT DAMAGE BY HAIL AT ANTHONY

Some of the Hailstones Weighed Over 4 Ounces; Ragged and Sharp.

Anthony, N. M., Oct. 1.—The most violent and destructive storm seen in this valley for the past 20 years seems to have centered at this place. It lasted for something like 30 minutes during which hail fell from the size of bird eggs up to ragged chunks of ice weighing over four ounces.

Automobiles Had Many Narrow Escapes.

Automobiles had many narrow escapes. One car came through after the storm with the top in ribbons. Heavy wind shields were broken and one passenger in a car caught near Mesquite was struck on the arm by a hailstone that came through the top and it was thought the bones in his arm were broken.

Large Amount of the Hail Here Fell in Ragged Chunks.

A large amount of the hail here fell in ragged chunks while no other locality reports any but smooth, round hail. J. M. Forsythe weighed one chunk that weighed four and one-half ounces, and Mr. Bekk reports the same size on a number.

The Tuna Drug Store of L. Jagers was flooded with water.

J. R. Livesey, manager of the Valley Mercantile and Banking company, reports a peculiar incident.

J. R. Livesey, manager of the Valley Mercantile and Banking company, reports a peculiar incident after the glass was broken out of his window. The hail struck a cardboard box in the office and made two holes in it. On opening same, six hailstones were found inside.

It is impossible to estimate the damage done to buildings but it runs into hundreds of dollars while crop damage is as many thousands.

ORNDORFF URGES EL PASOANS TO VISIT DONA ANA FAIR

The Dona Ana county fair is in progress at Las Cruces and many El Pasoans are driving to the fair in six and going up on the Santa Fe train to see the exposition of Dona Ana county's resources.

R. B. Orndorff, president of the chamber of commerce, has urged everyone who can get away to go to the fair either this evening or Saturday, to hope that every El Pasoan who can spare the time from his business will go to Las Cruces Saturday.

Las Cruces and the whole of Dona Ana county in fact are among the best customers of the merchants of El Paso, and it will be to our interests from a purely commercial point of view to make some slight return for past favors of a commercial character in the way of going to the fair on the day set apart for us and showing our good will.

NEGRO MINSTRELS PLEASE WITH SINGING AND DANCING

Negro minstrels are popular in El Paso, as evidenced by the packed house at the Texas Grand Thursday night to see Busby's negro minstrel show.

Many were turned away, as all of the seats were sold before the opening overture was played.

The singing, dancing and orchestra music was typically of the genre and pleased the big crowd immensely, especially the dancing of the little negro who was second from the end on the right side of the circle. The jokes, as a rule, were crude and inclined to be vulgar rather than funny.

The negro minstrels were at their best when they were singing plantation songs, doing levee dances and acting natural. A burlesque boxing match in the second part kept the crowd in a roar until the long negro and the short negro stopped from sheer exhaustion.

The Busby minstrels have been coming here many years and a number of the performers have been here since the show first started playing in El Paso, N. M. W.

TODAY'S AMUSEMENTS

MAX FIGMAN TOMORROW. The Unique presents tomorrow and Sunday the popular Max Figman and Lois Meredith in "My Best Girl," a comedy drama in five delightful parts, from the play by Channing Pollock and Renold Wolf. "My Best Girl" is the kind of entertainment that is now packing the large theaters of the east and the kind of entertainment that will cause you to wish for more. It is a picture for the masses and one that will please everyone. Special orchestra music will be rendered for this production between the hours of 2:30 and 5:30 p. m. and 7:30 and 10:30 p. m. Admission, twenty-five cents.—Advertisement.

"THE CASE OF BECKY." All the tricks of the hypnotist will be exposed and all the knots that can be done by the proper use of hypnotism will be shown at the Alhambra today when the Lasky-Belasco production of Edwin Locke's sensational drama, "The Case of Becky," is presented.

The beautiful and clever Lasky star, Blanche Sweet, is seen in the title role and is supported by such splendid artists as Theodore Roberts, James Neill, Florence Dagmar and others.—Advertisement.

FAMOUS STAR AT GRECIAN. Winifred Kingston, a star who has triumphed here and abroad, will be seen at the Grecian today in a special feature, "The Road to Fame," a powerful drama of the stage. Be sure and see it. Love, Mumps and Bumps, a re-licking comedy presented by the popular Rearty company, makes the bill today an attractive offering. Don't miss it.—Advertisement.

For all shortening and frying Cottolene is supreme

Cottolene is an exact combination of the purest, richest, most carefully refined cottonseed oil and the choicest beef stearine obtained from selected, high grade leaf beef suet. Cottolene is itself one of the purest of pure foods.

Cottolene makes foods more digestible—more wholesome—makes them taste better. Use it for every kind of shortening and frying and for making pies, cakes and pastries.

Cottolene

is not offered as a substitute or as being "just as good" as other shortening and frying fats. It is an original product and better than anything else that you can use for shortening or frying.

You can use Cottolene over and over for frying. It does not absorb tastes or odors. Always heat Cottolene slowly. Pails of various sizes. Arrange with your grocer for a regular supply.
